

The Star Online > Nation

Wednesday October 17, 2007

Amorous couple in pile-up

MUAR: A couple caught making out in their car tried to speed off but got caught in an accident, causing a five-car pile-up in Tanjung Agas here.

In the 8.45pm incident on Monday, police personnel in a passing patrol car spotted the couple locked in intimate embrace in a car at a hypermarket car park in Tanjung Agas.

As the patrol car neared them, the couple sped out of the car park for the Muar-Tanjung Agas road.

However, the couple's car, a Proton Perdana, was involved in an accident with a passing car and this caused three other cars to crash not far from the Muar bridge near Tanjung Agas.

The couple, both in their 20s, were detained and the man was booked for reckless driving.

Muar traffic police officer Chief Insp Lim Aik Sin said the couple had been referred to the district religious department.

He said the man was a factory worker living in Malacca while the woman, a private college student in Kuala Lumpur, was from Kluang.