MUSLIM RUN DOGFIGHTING BECOMING RAMPANT IN THE UK

FROM THEOPINIONATOR:

As far as I am concerned there is little more despicable than dog fighting. The useless occupiers of space that abuse dogs and then use them as entertainment should be sent to jail and the key thrown away. I have no sympathy and will make no excuses for the heinous activity of dog fighting. Needless to say if they were to come for my English bull terrier they'd not leave walking.

The below article discusses how the beloved Great Britain "Nanny dog"- the little staffie (Staffordshire Bull Terrier)- has been seized upon by vile adults and forced into excessive breeding, fighting and eventual death. More comments below the article.

Bull terriers shut in lifts for fight to death

The number of Staffordshire bull terriers is soaring amid reports that the breed is being used increasingly for street fighting and a practice known as 'lifting', in which dogs or a dog and a cat are sent down in a high-rise lift in the hope that they will savage each other while being filmed on a mobile phone.

London's most famous animal rescue centre, the Battersea Dogs and Cats Home, has revealed that one in three of the dogs it handled last year was a Staffordshire bull terrier. The figure represents a 70 per cent increase on the number of pure bred Staffies and their crosses housed during 2005 - up from 1,564 to 2,677.

The RSPCA says that irresponsible behaviour involving dogs has grown so fast that it is now more of a problem than it was before the introduction of the 1991 Dangerous Dogs Act. 'It appears to be the latest hoodie accessory,' said RSPCA chief inspector Jan Eachus. 'Guns are illegal, knives are illegal, but to walk a dog on the street is not against the law.'

The anti-social behaviour includes damage to trees. Keen to build their pets' muscle and jaw strength, owners encourage them to strip off bark or to hang suspended from branches.

Staffies are also being used in muggings. Of 18 reported instances in which a description of the dog used was given, 10 were of Staffordshire bull terriers.

Whereas the article would like us to believe it is the "hoodies" that are responsible (and some may be) but clearly the REAL group that has repeatedly been caught and convicted for dog fighting is.....you guessed it.....
MUSLIMS.

Below links are for three recent instances of UK muslims gangs and individuals responsible for the reprehensible act of fighting dogs:

It is ironic that muslims who won't let dogs, even service dogs, in their cabs because dogs are unclean, have NO problem exploiting dogs for muslim "sport". But you can be sure that some addle-headed multicultural worshipping moron will do their typical muslim apologising routine and state that dog fighting is part of the muslim "culture" - you know the "culture" that these same multiculti idiots are trying to convince us is on a par with thousands of years of British civilisation??!!

Another instance of the followers of the "Religion of Peace" defiling Great Britain.

The British have long been known worldwide as having a great fondness for our dogs - I suggest that everyone contact their MPs and join with the various dog rescue groups (Battersea) etc and demand that dog fighting be eradicated from the UK.

My mother used to raise Staffordshire Bull Terriers, so I have a particular soft spot for that breed.

Muslims despise dogs like no other tribe. And Muslims abuse dogs too. Right there, I've lost confidence in Muslims.

Evil Muslims have always been violent people. So you can expect them to breed dogs for dog fighting. It seems that violence is the sacrament of the evil Muslims, the Children of Satan.
